WALA 2015 took place last week in Athens, Greece, kindly hosted by Athens International Airport S.A. (AIA)

This year's WALA conference brought together more than 100 delegates from 62 organizations representing more than 35 countries, a remarkable worldwide variety.

Conference presentations can now be downloaded from www.wala2015.org

WALAs board members Diego Gonzalez, Michael Siebold, Alan Menghetti and Brian Day concluded: "This year's WALA Conference was truly remarkable - the range and caliber of the speakers and delegates made the standard of debate and networking higher than ever before, and has truly put the organization and this conference on the map as one of the "must attend" conferences for airport lawyers".

We would like to thank our main sponsor SITA, and all the organizations that once again supported WALA: Vanderlande Industries, Locke Lord LLP, Urwantschky Dangel Borst, Kaplan, Kirsh Rockwell, Aeropuertos Argentina 2000, AIG, Zacharias Insurance Brokers, Arnecke Sibeth, Split Airport and the Hellenic American University.

Finally, WALA expects to be able to announce the venue for the 2016 edition in November 2015.
